

Valentín Morardo

Full Stack Web Developer

Since I was a child, I have always been fascinated by technology, especially computers, so I decided to dedicate myself to programming. I consider myself a passionate, optimistic, and self-taught person, always facing challenges with a positive attitude to overcome them. I've honed strong problem-solving and logical thinking skills. My goal is to make meaningful contributions to challenging, collaborative projects, harnessing my tech passion and optimistic mindset
